SOUTH WINDSOR TOWN COUNCIL
BLACK LIVES MATTER SUB-COMMITTEE PRESENTS

A VIRTUAL COMMUNITY CONVERSATION

Moving Toward an Anti-Racist Culture with Dr. Joseph Cooper

Tuesday, October 20th at 7:00 PM

Dr. Joseph Cooper, Professor in the Department of Leadership in Education at Umass/Boston, focuses on the intersection between sport, education, race, and culture with an emphasis on sport involvement as a catalyst for holistic development. He is also the faculty founder of Collective Uplift (CU), an organization designed to educate, empower, inspire, and support individuals to maximize their holistic potential both within and beyond athletic contexts.

https://southwindsorct.webex.com/southwindsorct/onstage/g.php?MTID=ec99af5982779a3285bafa92162897ff5
Password:4TDqBp7GDW3.

Questions for presenter can be submitted to BLMSCComments@southwindsor-ct.gov.

This event can also be viewed on gmedia.swagit.com/live or Channel 16 through Cox Cable and Channel 6082 through Frontier