

Feeling zapped paying your energy bills?

Your Energy Committee would like you to know about the following programs that may help.

- Operation Fuel partners with local government and community-based organizations at more than 100 sites throughout Connecticut to ensure that families in need have access to year-round energy assistance. In addition to helping you apply for energy assistance programs, our partner agencies may be able to connect you with programs that provide assistance for food, clothing, health services, childcare, and more.

Click on the link for details: www.operationfuel.org

- Posigen Solar for All

Posigen Solar Solutions is one of the only solar contractors in Connecticut specifically focused on bringing solar to low-and moderate- income communities. By using alternative underwriting strategies, community-based marketing and offering energy savings agreements in addition to solar, they are able to make a significant dent in low income energy burdens

Click on the link for details: www.posigen.com

- Home Energy Solutions - Income-Eligible (HES-IE) If your family's combined gross annual income is below the state's 60 percent income median, you may qualify for our Home Energy Solutions - Income-Eligible (HES-IE) program. The co-pay fee is waived and you may receive additional energy-saving services at no cost. Learn more and to see if you qualify.

Click on the link for details: <http://www.newoppinc.org/wrap>

Contact the South Windsor Human Services Department at 860-648-6361 or drop by the Charles N. Enes Community Center for an appointment to discuss various income eligible programs.